- TYPES OF PROCESSED DATA

Surfing data

The electronic retrieval and software systems which power the site, usually acquire some personal data, the transmission of which is implicit in the use of web communications protocols.

This information is not gathered to identify visitors, although by its very nature it could be processed and associated with data held by third parties, and allow visitors to be identified.

This type of data includes IP addresses or domain names for computers used by visitors, the URI (Uniform Resources Identifier) addresses of the resources viewed, the time of the visit, the method used to interrogate the server, and the size of the file sent out as a reply, the numerical code showing the status of the reply given by the server (done, error, ect.) and other parameters relative to the operating systems and electronic retrieval system used by visitors.

These data are used purely for the purposes of obtaining anonymous site statistics and making sure that the site is working properly, and are deleted immediately after processing. Such data could be useful for ascertaining responsibility for any computer crime and misdemeanour committed against the site. Otherwise, these web data are not currently stored for more than 7 days.

Data provided by visitors on their own accord

E-mails: any optional, express and voluntary sending of e-mails to the addresses given on the site automatically means that the addresses of visitors are stored (and necessary to reply to any question) as are any personal detail contained in the e-mails.

Off-lines personal data gathering: in the event of Sterigenics Italy S.p.A. gathering personal data off-line (e.g. via the completion of paper forms) a disclaimer is sent out if the interested party gives their consent (where necessary); this is also the case for forms downloaded from www.sterigenicsitaly.com (the disclaimer about data protection is given on the forms).

On-line personal data gathering: for data gathered directly from www.sterigenicsitaly.com (e.g. contacts, special requests) information about data protection is given if any data are actually gathered; this page maybe visited to read and examine the complete privacy policy.

- DATA TRANSFER OPTIONS

Transferring data is optional but maybe necessary to use all the services provided on www.sterigenicsitaly.com.

Where required, personal data must be entered into a special form.
Is these data are not transferred, a service may not be available.

- COOKIES

This site doesn't use profiling cookies, as defined by the Act of the Privacy's Garante (the Italian DPA) dated May 8th 2014 - "Individuation of the simplified conditions for the information and the acquisition of the consent to use cookies", to get across personal information – nor any kind of cd cookies are used, or systems for the users tracking. The use of technical cookies (session, analytics or functional, as defined in the above-mentioned Act) is strictly limited to the transmission of session identification data (consisting of server-generated random numbers), necessary to grant the safe and efficient website browsing (i.e. enabling to buy or identify in restricted areas); to allow the website visitors data collection (quantity and modality); to enable the users browsing according to selected criteria (language, selected products for the purchase). This is done in the aim of improving the service to the user.

Session cookies used by this site do not use other techniques which may jeopardize visitor confidentiality and do not allow any personal data, that could identify the visitor, to be acquired. Temporary cookies are used also for statistical purposes, through Google Analytics sensor. Even in this case no personal information are visualized or memorized.

- NO REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Surfing www.sterigenicsitaly.com is free, open to all, and requires no registration.

Surfing by unregistered visitors is not monitored either in terms of other sites they may have visited or any page they may view.

- COMMUNICATIONS AND DATA DISCLOSURE

Except where otherwise specified in disclaimers about specific processing, personal data will never be communicated or disclosed to third parties.
